

Title:	John A. Ramsden Fonds, 1887, 1894.
Creator:	Ramsden, John A.
Dates of Material:	1887, 1894	Record Group Number:	RG 100
Summary of Contents:	2 personal diaries
Physical Description / Condition:	Both diaries are in fragile condition with damage to spine.
Administrative/ Biographical Sketch	The fonds consists of two personal diaries of John Ramsden of Port Colborne written in 1887 and 1894. Ramsden was the Custom's House inspector/clerk stationed at the mouth of the Welland Canal. Entries include details on the Canal business and traffic, social life, family farm and more. Mr. Ramsden was born and raised in the Port Colborne Humberstone area. The family farm was known as Ridgeway.
Location:	Brock University Archives
Source Information:	Purchased from a book dealer. Date unknown.

Subject Headings:	600	Ramsden, John A.
	651	Welland Canal (Ont.) xHistory vSources.
	651	Port Colborne (Ont.) xHistory vSources.
	651	Humberstone (Ont.) xHistory vSources.
Added Entries:
Related material held at other repositories:
Described by:	Sharon Carl / Edie Williams	Date:	Updated March 23, 2010